January 2025. Zwiesel Glas counts some of the best in their field among their long-standing clients: highly acclaimed Michelin-starred chefs like Jan Hartwig and Tim Raue, renowned mixologists, and top winemakers all trust the quality of the global market leader from the Bavarian Forest. The world's finest hotels, including the Adlon Kempinski in Berlin and The Peninsula in Hong Kong, are also among their loyal customers. Recently honored with the German Design Award for the "Symbiosis" decanter, introduced as a new release in 2024, the company now unveils a broad range of exceptional eye-catchers with its 2025 novelties.

Vuelo: a new lightness on the table

Zwiesel Glas introduces the new stemware collection "Move," a series that captivates with exceptional elegance and functionality. The seamless transition from the refined, pulled stem to the delicate upper bowl, combined with the smooth flow into the broad base plate, gives this machine-made premium collection an unparalleled aesthetic. "Vuelo" impresses with its intricate craftsmanship and remarkable durability – characteristics that will delight discerning hosts and design lovers alike. With "Vuelo", every table arrangement becomes a stylish highlight.

Sensory-tested and meticulously designed, the glasses allow the aromas of various grape varieties to unfold perfectly in the impressively lightweight wine glasses. The fine rim of the particularly thin-walled glass allows the wine to glide almost effortlessly onto the palate. The five perfectly harmonized sizes with their balanced shapes are reminiscent of the great classics.

"Vuelo" is made in Germany from brilliant Tritan® crystal glass, is particularly break resistant and dishwasher-safe and therefore durable and sustainable. Available from September at an RRP of 39,00 euros in a carton of two.

Age & Fave: New bar talents in a cut glass look

With the new "Age" and "Fave" tumbler series from Schott Zwiesel, passionate home bar owners can expand their mixology skills in style. Whether long drinks, whisky, liqueur, schnapps or accompanying water – the two collections, each consisting of four tumbler sizes, offer the perfect setting for every drink. Other drinks such as matcha tea, iced coffee, smoothies or even desserts are also a real eye-catcher in these glasses. The tumbler series are made from brilliant crystal glass and are characterized by a solid base, thick walls and their heavy weight. They are impressive to the touch and meet the highest standards of hospitality. With their high breakage and dishwasher resistance, the glasses are suitable for everyday use without compromising on brilliance. Schott Zwiesel stands for quality and design – perfect for stylish enjoyment at home. Available from March from 19,95 euros (RRP) for four pieces.

Level: stylish and minimalist – a new level of wine enjoyment

The "Level" carafe is the perfect addition to the first wine tumbler series from Zwiesel Glas. Minimalist, straightforward and reduced to the essentials, it is the epitome of uncomplicated and high-quality drinking pleasure. The highly functional and sensory-tested level of the carafe optimally aerates red, white and rosé wines, while the aromas break on the edge and develop harmoniously. In addition to wine, the versatile and stylish all-round carafe is also suitable for water, juices, soft drinks and much more. Smoothies and lemonades, for example, can be presented in style even before they are consumed. The tapered neck also ensures a safe and elegant serving experience.

The simple design fits effortlessly into any ambience and makes "Level" a versatile all-rounder for both everyday wear and special occasions.

The carafe is machine-made and is particularly durable, brilliant, break resistant and dishwasher-safe. It has the special Drop Protect surface finish, which prevents the formation of drops when decanting and pouring. Available from March for 35,95 euros (RRP) each.

About Zwiesel Glas

For more than 150 years, Zwiesel Glas has stood for passion and uncompromising quality in glass. At the main site in Zwiesel and the glass factory in Hungary, around 800 employees produce up to 60 million crystal glasses with a distinctive sound every year.

Zwiesel Glas joined forces with the US company Fortessa Tableware Solutions to not only provide the tables of this world with perfect glasses in the future, but also with matching cutlery and porcelain. The resulting Zwiesel Fortessa Group is a global leader in the tableware sector. Its portfolio ranges from premium glasses, cutlery and porcelain to concepts and solutions for customers in the consumer and professional sectors. Together, the group generated a turnover of 214,5 million euros with more than 1000 employees.

In 2024, Zwiesel Glas once again received the German Brand Award for excellent brand management. On this basis, it is consistently driving forward the expansion of the professional sector and the rollout of its two-brand strategy, as well as the consumer and high-quality brand business. In 2025, the glass manufacturer was named "World Market Leader Champion" in the "Crystal Glass for the Upscale Hotel and Restaurant Industry" segment for the ninth year in a row. With such a title comes great responsibility. Zwiesel Glas continuously tests its raw materials for origin and quality and relies on resource-saving production processes. The glass type Tritan® enables brilliant and durable products – and thus ensures particularly high sustainability.
